Dear Parents and Carers,

What a lovely week back-who would have thought it was February! It's a shame the rain has come today!

Internet Safety

There are lots of reports in social media about horrible challenges through Whatsapp and videos that are easily accessible to children on You Tube. I must state that in school the computer systems have secure filters on them and children cannot access You Tube, only teachers can. Videos shown as an educational resource using You Tube are always checked before use anyway and always have been. The children are regularly taught about online safety. Their online safety at home is more difficult to check, I advise that if your children go on Whatsapp or go online independently that you remind them to tell an adult if they see something they don't like, so that the adult can report it. Please remind them not to reply to any messages off strangers. Have a read of the top tips poster on the back of this newsletter.

World Book Day

On Thursday, March 7th it is World Book Day and there are lots of activities going on in school to celebrate. The reading challenges went out over half term and are due back on March 8th. And don't forget to start planning what your potato is going to look like! The children can dress up as their favourite book character, or as a word! (e.g. messy - messy hair, face clothes etc.!) We just thought we would open it up a bit wider to make costume finding easier.

Comic Relief

Friday 15th March is Comic Relief day. We always get involved and this year we thought we would just go wacky! So please don't buy anything, just dress up in random clothes to make yourself look wacky! (Crazy hair, crazy face paints, odd socks, backwards t-shirts etc. - I'm sure the children can think of even better ones!)) But please do bring £1 as it goes to a great cause.

Freddy Fit

Freddy Fit is back in school on Friday 8th March. It's a parent and children workshop this time, so look out for the timetable from Mrs Lamb to tell you what time your child's class is going in the hall and you can join them!!!

I hope you all have a great week and if you need to speak to us about anything in the newsletter please do.

Kind regards,

C.Flanders
